

Information Campaign to Industry

Östra Göinge municipality

Reduce its emissions of environmental charges

Guidelines for wastewater from industries and other businesses

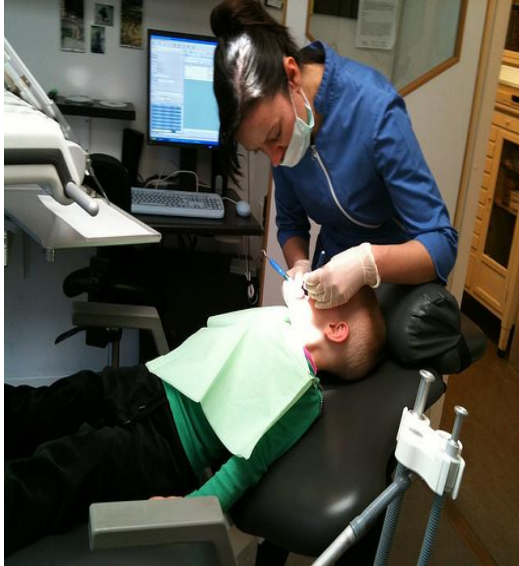

Environmental fees and other inappropriate substances may damage the sewer system and water environment. In this brochure we are working on sewage treatment plants therefore more about sewage, chemicals, and about what is required to get divert wastewater to the sewer system.

HELP US GET CLEANER WATER!

Contents

General requirements for connection

All the activities are connected to the municipal pipe network must be able to demonstrate that their sewage water is treatable. Inappropriate discharges can cause great damage in the piping, pumping stations, treatment plants and the recipient. They can also lead to health risks for staff. Therefore, the general requirements for the most common pollutants such as ammonium, fat, chloride and metals established. Hazardous chemical substances should not be present in the wastewater. In addition to the environmental authorities and the VA principal impose additional requirements.

Read more about the general requirements for affiliated businesses.

Specific requirements for connection

In addition to all the companies that are connected to the municipal sewer system must meet the general requirements subject to certain industries also specific requirements. They are businesses whose wastewater contains substances that are so harmful that they require different internal treatment before the wastewater can be discharged. These include car washes, hospitals, dental offices and manufacturing industries.

Read more about the specific requirements for affiliated businesses.